Privacy Policy

Sahara Compute LLC is committed to maintaining the utmost level of data privacy for users. We only collect what is necessary and have numerous safeguards in place to ensure your data is secure.

What We Collect

We collect:
- Email Address
- Name
- Billing Address
- IP Address

We use this data to associate account data with you and verify other security features. Your email is associated with your account for logins across services, your name is so our support team can properly address you, and your billing address is for proper taxing.

IP Addresses are automatically collected by numerous tools we use, we store your IP to prevent fraudulent transactions and to ensure security.

How to expunge your data

You can contact our support team (support@saharacompute.com) and ask us to expunge/delete any records associated with your account, our support team will get back to you.